Alexandria Gazette

Friday morning Mr. James Canning, a member of the police force of New York, arrived in this city and called on Chief of Police John Poe, ir., with a letter of introduction from Chief of Police Whalen, of New York city. Mr. Canning stated that his business here was to search for a young lady who mysteriously lefther home in New York several days ago, since which time nothing has been heard of her. He had a picture of the lady, which he exhibited. From this picture the young lady appeared to be about twenty five years old and quite pretty. Major Poe detailed Sergeant Jeter, of the lower police district, to assist Mr. Canning in the search. These officers spent the entire day Friday in looking for the missing one, but Friday in looking for the missing one, but without evacess. Saturday morning they start. Friday in looking for the missing one, but without success. Saturday morning they started out again, and, at the time of our going to press had accomplished nothing. The officer press had accomplished nothing. The officer as accompanied by an elderly gentleman and a secompanied by an elderly gentleman and a R. H. HAVENER, General Ticket Agent. press had accomplished nothing. The officer Commutation tickets, 8 cts. per mile young man, apparently about eighteen years old, who are said to be the father and brother of the young lady. Efforts were made to as-certain the name of this young lady, but with-out success. All that could be found out about her was that she is the daughter of a New York millionaire, and left home while laboring under great mental aberration.-Rich. State. CARD.
